

General Terms of Sale and Delivery
valid for all companies of the AMAG group
December 2022

Date 16.12.2022

1. Conclusion of Contract

- a) The following terms shall be exclusively applicable for all our deliveries and services. The purchasing terms of the Buyer shall bind us only if accepted in individual cases explicitly in writing.
- b) Our offers are always non-binding. Orders placed with us as well as any modifications of orders shall be binding in all cases for the Buyer. For us, orders placed or modifications made shall become binding only upon our order confirmation in writing.

2. Prices and Taxes

- a) Our prices are current prices. For orders without an explicit price agreement, the prices of the delivery day shall be applicable. All prices are applicable ex works and exclusive of the respective statutory value added tax, other taxes or public charges, packaging, freight, customs, insurance, etc. If our deliveries and services are subject to value added tax (VAT) or other taxes, we will invoice VAT and other tax to the Buyer. This also applies to all taxes due to a change in tax law after conclusion of the contract.
- b) The following shall apply to deliveries and services within the EU (across national borders):

- The VAT identification number of the Buyer shall be disclosed immediately for reporting purposes; in case of doubt, the VAT identification number stated in the order will be used for reporting and billing purposes. A change to the VAT identification number can only be taken into account before the delivery is carried out. If no VAT identification number is given before the delivery is effected, VAT will be charged.
- The Buyer undertakes to cooperate in creating and/or providing all necessary evidence for tax exemption in compliance with the statutory law and duties of care, otherwise, the Buyer shall be liable and shall indemnify and hold us harmless in this respect.
- In the event of collection by the Buyer or his agents and shipment to another country, we issue a tax-free invoice to the Buyer. If not all requirements for tax exemption are met, and the Buyer does not timely provide all necessary documents and evidence (e.g. evidences in compliance with the law), we will charge VAT to the Buyer.
- Furthermore, clause 2.h) applies accordingly.

The following shall apply to deliveries and services to third countries (outside of the EU):

- The Buyer undertakes to cooperate in creating and/or providing all necessary evidence for tax exemption in compliance with the statutory law and duties of care. Furthermore, unless otherwise agreed, the Buyer shall fulfill all requirements according to applicable customs law and provide us with the necessary information and documents regarding any obligations we may have in this regard. The Buyer shall be liable for any breach of these obligations and shall indemnify and hold us harmless accordingly.
- In the event of collection by the Buyer or his agents and shipment to another country, we issue a tax-free invoice to the Buyer. If not all requirements for tax exemption are met, and the Buyer does not timely provide all necessary documents and evidence (e.g. export certificates in compliance with the law), we will charge VAT to the Buyer.
- Furthermore, clause 2.h) applies accordingly.
- c) If the exemption from VAT is subsequently refused (e.g. in course of an official review) or omitted for other reasons, the Buyer shall immediately pay the subsequently and separately invoiced VAT and corresponding default costs, provided that the subsequent debit is due to inadequate information or cooperation of the Buyer.
- d) The Buyer shall bear all taxes and other public charges that are incurred by the Buyer in connection with our deliveries and services.
- e) The Buyer shall inform us in a timely manner if he intends to levy withholding taxes. In this case, we will send the Buyer a certificate of residence from the registered tax office or any other document required to avoid withholding taxes and/or a copy of the notification of registration in the Buyer's country, before the Buyer effects the payment. Further procedure shall be mutually agreed with us. If withholding taxes will be levied, the withholding taxes shall be borne by the Buyer.
- f) The Buyer shall be liable for all taxes and charges that arise from incorrect or incomplete information on part of the Buyer.
- g) In the event of collection by the Buyer or his agents (especially in the case of delivery ex works or free carrier), the Buyer assures that he has not resold the contractual deliveries to a third party. Should the Buyer's responsibility for transport pass to a third party in the event of a resale, we shall be informed immediately. In this case, the Buyer shall indemnify and hold us harmless with regard to all tax disadvantages.
- h) Invoicing by means of a credit note procedure has to be contractually agreed separately. In the case of billing using the credit note procedure, the author of the credit note shall calculate and state the VAT and other taxes in compliance with applicable law.
- i) In case of electronic invoicing, no additional paper invoice will be sent to the Buyer.
- j) We shall be entitled to effect a reasonable price increase if, after the submission of a quotation, changes have occurred with raw material or auxiliary material prices, energy prices, wages, salaries, freight, public duties or other external costs.
- k) By participating in the tool costs or taking over the tool costs, the Buyer shall not acquire a right to the tools. The tools shall remain our property. Cash discounts, discounts and payment terms with regard to the tools shall require a specific agreement. We shall be entitled to dispose of the tools three years after the last delivery.

3. Delivery & Delivery Term

- a) Our deliveries are subject to timely and correct deliveries of our pre-suppliers.
- b) Indications as to delivery times are approximate. The delivery time starts with the day of acceptance of the order by us, but, not prior to the complete clarification of all details of realization. If the Buyer has to procure documents, data, approvals, releases, etc. or to effect a down-payment, the delivery term shall not start prior to the fulfilment of these obligations.
- c) Necessary export documents shall be procured by the Buyer.
- d) The dispatch or handover in our works and/or warehouse shall be decisive for the compliance with the delivery terms and dates. They are considered to be observed with the notice of readiness for dispatch if the goods cannot be dispatched timely for reasons that are not our fault.
- e) The Buyer shall not be entitled to refuse partial deliveries. According to the type of goods, deviations of weight, number of pieces, metres, etc. up to +/- 10 percent as regards the entire quantity concluded as well as regards partial deliveries are permitted unless our applicable technical conditions of delivery stipulate otherwise. The quantity units determined by us (according to goods, in general weights, in special cases also numbers of pieces, metres, etc.) shall be decisive for the calculation of the invoice value.
- f) Impediments during realization and/or delivery of an order which cannot be eliminated by us or cannot be eliminated in an economically reasonable way (e.g. strikes, operational disturbances, lockouts, untimely receipt of pre-material, traffic disturbances, regional or supra-regional power failures (blackouts), cyber attacks, lack of energy, lack of raw materials etc.) as well as their effects shall be considered force majeure and shall release us for the duration and to the extent of their effect from the obligation of delivery without the Buyer being entitled to damages. We shall be obliged to carry out the deliveries ordered after the impediment is eliminated.

- g) The right to damages due to delay in delivery is also excluded in all cases, if the latter has occurred due to damage of the equipment and tools used in the production of the material ordered.

4. Qualitative Acceptance Test

- a) Material delivered by us will only be subject to this test if the corresponding material standards ensure an acceptance or if it was agreed explicitly upon placement of the order. The costs of the test shall be borne by the Buyer.
- b) The test shall be carried out within an adequate time period, but within two weeks after readiness for delivery was reported at the latest. Otherwise the test shall be deemed to be carried out and the goods to be delivered according to agreement. In such a case we shall be entitled to dispatch the material or to store it at the expense and risk of the Buyer.

5. Packaging

If packaging is required in our view, it is carried out in a commercial manner according to our standards and at the expense of the Buyer.

6. Dispatch, Passing of Risk and Insurance

- a) The dispatch route and the dispatch means as well as the forwarding agent & the carrier shall be determined by us. With the handover of the goods to the forwarding agent or carrier, the risk, including the risk of seizure of the material, shall pass over to the Buyer.
- b) Freight costs, the costs of any insurance of the dispatch on request of the Buyer, customs duties, etc. shall be at the expense of the Buyer. The realization of special loading and dispatch instructions conferred by the Buyer shall be at the risk and expense of the Buyer.

7. Taking Over & Delay of Acceptance

- a) Goods ready for dispatch shall be collected immediately by the Buyer. The non-timely provision of any necessary dispatch instructions or non-timely collection of goods shall lead to delay of acceptance by the Buyer. In such a case we may optionally arrange the dispatch of the goods to the Buyer or store the goods; all this at the risk of the Buyer. Additional costs or damage resulting therefrom shall be borne by the Buyer and/or refunded by him to us. The statutory provisions and legal consequences of delay of acceptance shall not be affected by this.
- b) If the Buyer does not take over our due delivery or the necessary documents of delivery, our order is fulfilled and the Buyer shall be obliged to full payment. In such a case we shall be entitled to store the material at the expense and risk of the Buyer.

8. Tolerances, Weight, Other Quality Features

- a) Unless otherwise agreed explicitly in writing, existing applicable standards (e.g. EN, DIN, ÖNORM etc.) shall apply to the specifications agreed. For the rest, our technical conditions of delivery shall be applicable.
- b) Deviations of dimension, weight and other quality features shall be allowed within the framework of the standard agreed or as customary.
- c) The costs of any examinations, analyses etc. shall be borne by the Buyer.

9. Warranty

- a) We only warrant that the goods comply with the agreed technical specifications. Any further warranty and liability for a specific quality of the goods or for the suitability of the goods for a specific purpose is excluded.
- b) The rights of the Buyer from the warranty, including but not limited to claims of price reduction or rescission of the contract (Wandlung) shall become statute-barred one (1) month after expiry of the warranty period.
- c) The warranty term shall start with the handover of the goods to the Buyer and shall end after six months.
- d) The date of handover shall be decisive for the conditions of the goods according to the agreement.
- e) The Buyer shall always bear the burden of proof for the fact that any defects were already existent at the time of handover. § 924 clause 2 ABGB (Austrian Civil Code) shall not apply.
- f) After the agreed acceptance of the goods has been carried out by the Buyer, any claims of defects which can be detected during the agreed type of acceptance shall be excluded.

In case of hidden defects, which cannot be discovered by applying most diligent examination standards, such notice shall be carried out immediately, but in any case no later than 5 days after their discovery.
- i) If the Buyer fails to notify us within the time periods set forth in Article 9.h) above, he shall no longer be able to assert claims for warranty, (§§ 922 et seqq. ABGB [Austrian Civil Code]), for damages due to the defect itself (§ 933 a par. 2 ABGB [Austrian Civil Code]) as well as due to an error on the absence of defects (§§ 871 et seq. ABGB [Austrian Civil Code]).
- j) We are liable for those parts of the goods which we purchase from pre-suppliers only within the framework of the warranty claims due to us against the pre-supplier.
- k) The condition precedent for the recognition of a defect shall be – inter alia - the fact that the goods have been used according to their conditions of quality.
- l) If the Buyer does not provide to us the possibility to ascertain the defect ourselves, or if he does not make available, particularly upon request, the goods found defective or samples of them immediately, any claims for defects shall be void.
- m) The subject provisions shall also be applicable for the supply of goods not included in this agreement.

10. Force Majeure

Events of force majeure and other circumstances beyond our control (no matter if they occur with us, our pre-suppliers etc.) as well as other circumstances which make the delivery more difficult or impossible shall entitle us to postpone the delivery term by the duration of the impediment, and/or to terminate entirely or partly the contract, without being liable for any claims of the Buyer for damages.
