

Curriculum Vitae

Dr Wolfgang Bernhard

Dr Wolfgang Bernhard, born on September 3, 1960, is an electrical engineer with a doctorate degree in Finance. After completing his Master studies at the Technical University of Darmstadt, he obtained a Master's degree in Business Administration from Columbia University in New York and subsequently completed his doctoral dissertation on international exchange rate risks at the Johann Wolfgang Goethe University in Frankfurt.

Dr Bernhard began his career at the former Mercedes-Benz AG in 1992 before taking over the center management of S-Class production in Sindelfingen two years later. In 1999, he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Mercedes-AMG GmbH. In the following year, he joined the Board of Management of the DaimlerChrysler AG as Chief Operating Officer of the Chrysler Group.

Between 2005 and 2007, he was member of the Board of Management of Volkswagen AG, responsible for the Volkswagen, Skoda, Bentley and Bugatti brands.

In February 2009, Dr Bernhard returned to Daimler AG and joined the Board of Management in 2010, responsible for Manufacturing and Procurement. Since April 2013, he was responsible for Daimler Trucks & Buses. In February 2017, Dr Bernhard resigned from his position.